-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 8/11/08.

DETAILED ACTION

Notice to Applicant

1. This communication is in response to the election filed 3/6/07. Claims 1-12 and 41-45 are pending. Claims 13-40 have been cancelled.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Pillay et al (US 2002/0042763 A1—hereinafter Pillay). The applied reference has a common assignee with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C.102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention “by another,” or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

[claim 1] Pillay method for providing assurance to a user of the identity of a trading counterpart in an online marketplace transaction via an insurance policy, the method comprising the steps of:

- supplying, by an insurer, the insurance policy to said user, said insurance policy includes a predetermined monetary premium payable to said insurer; (par 79-80)
- receiving said premium by said insurer from said user; and (par. 100)
- paying by said insurer, in accordance with terms of said insurance policy, benefits of said insurance policy resulting from the misidentified or misrepresented identity of said trading counterpart, to said user between a policy inception date and a policy termination date. (par. 84-85,112—Examiner interprets inability to pay as a misrepresentation of a customer/trading counterpart)

[claim 2] Pillay discloses the method of claim 1, wherein said premium is calculated by assessing at least one of a credit score of said trading counterpart, an amount and type of said trading counterpart's previous said transactions, a monetary amount and type of said transaction, the nature of goods involved in said transaction, and the nature of services involved in said transaction or any combination thereof (par. 58-59, 70, 81)

[claim 3] Pillay discloses the method of claim 1, wherein said premium is calculated by assessing information comprising a credit score of said trading counterpart, an amount and type of said trading counterpart's previous said transactions, a monetary amount and type of said transaction, the nature of goods involved in said transaction, and the nature of services involved in said transaction. (par. 58-59, 70,78 81-82)

[claim 4] Pillay discloses the method of claim 1, wherein said premium is calculated by assessing a credit score of said trading counterpart, wherein said credit score is calculated by analyzing at least one of the nature of said trading counterpart's business, profitability of said trading counterpart, indebtedness of said trading counterpart and payment history of said trading counterpart in previous said transactions or any combination thereof (par. 58-59, 64 (credit quote and credit ratings provided), 70, 78,88-89)

[claim 5] Pillay discloses the method of claim 1 further comprising:

- supplying, by the insurer, an additional insurance policy to said user, said insurance for providing assurance to a user of the financial ability of a trading counterpart to enter into an online marketplace transaction, said additional insurance policy includes a predetermined monetary premium payable to said insurer; (par 112-114)
- receiving said second premium by said insurer from said user; and (par. 100)
- paying by said insurer, in accordance with terms of said insurance policy, benefits of said second insurance policy resulting from the financial inability of a trading counterpart to enter and complete said transaction, to said user between a second policy inception date and a second policy termination date. (par. 84-85,112—

Examiner interprets inability to pay as a misrepresentation of a customer/trading counterpart)

[claim 6] Pillay discloses the method of claim 5, wherein said second premium is calculated by assessing at least one of a credit score of said trading counterpart, an amount and type of said trading counterpart's previous said transactions, a monetary amount and type of said transaction, the nature of goods involved in said transaction, and the nature of services involved in said transaction. (par. 58-59, 70, 81112-114)

[claim 7] Pillay discloses method of claim 5, wherein said premium is calculated by assessing information comprising a credit score of said trading counterpart, an amount and type of said trading counterpart's previous said transactions, a monetary amount and type of said transaction, the nature of goods involved in said transaction, and the nature of services involved in said transaction. (par. 58-59, 70,78 81-82)

[claim 8] Pillay discloses the method of claim 5, wherein said premium is calculated by assessing a credit score of said trading counterpart, wherein said credit score is calculated by analyzing at least one of the nature of said trading counterpart's business, profitability of said trading counterpart, indebtedness of said trading counterpart and payment history of said trading counterpart in previous said transactions or any combination thereof. (par. 58-59, 64 (credit quote and credit ratings provided), 70, 78,88-89)

[claim 9] Pillay discloses a method for providing assurance to a user for the financial ability of a trading counterpart to enter into an online marketplace transaction and for the identity of a trading counterpart in said transaction via an insurance policy, the method comprising the steps of

- supplying, by an insurer, an insurance policy to a user, the insurance policy including a predetermined monetary premium payable to said insurer for providing assurance to the user of the identity of a trading counterpart in an online marketplace transaction and of the financial ability of the trading counterpart to enter into the transaction; (par 79-80; 88-89)
- receiving said premium by said insurer from said user; and (par. 100)
- paying by said insurer, in accordance with terms of said insurance policy, benefits of said insurance policy resulting from at least one of the financial inability of a trading counterpart to enter and complete said transaction and the misidentified or misrepresented identity of said trading counterpart, to said user between a policy inception date and a policy termination date. (par. 84-85, 112—Examiner interprets inability to pay as a misrepresentation of a customer/trading counterpart)

[claim 10] Pillay discloses the method of claim 9, wherein said premium is calculated by assessing at least one of a credit score of said trading counterpart, an amount and type of said trading counterpart's previous said transactions, a monetary amount and

type of said transaction, the nature of goods involved in said transaction, and the nature of services involved in said transaction or any combination thereof. (par. 58-59, 70, 81)

[claim 11] Pillay discloses the method of claim 9, wherein said premium is calculated by assessing information comprising a credit score of said trading counterpart, an amount and type of said trading counterpart's previous said transactions, a monetary amount and type of said transaction, the nature of goods involved in said transaction, and the nature of services involved in said transaction. (par. 58-59, 70,78 81-82)

[claim 12] Pillay disclose the method of claim 9, wherein said premium is calculated by assessing a credit score of said trading counterpart, wherein said credit score is calculated by analyzing at least one of the nature of said trading counterpart's business, profitability of said trading counterpart, indebtedness of said trading counterpart and payment history of said trading counterpart in previous said transactions or any combination thereof. (par. 58-59, 64 (credit quote and credit ratings provided), 70, 78,88-89)

[claims 41-45] As per the limitations of newly added claims 41-45 see Pillay page 6, par. 88-89.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments submitted 8/11/08 have been considered but are not persuasive.

(A) Applicant argues that the Pillay reference does not relate to applicant's invention. In particular, applicant argues that the reference does not disclose paying by the insurer, benefits resulting from the misidentification of a trading counterparty.

In response, the Examiner respectfully disagrees with Applicant's narrow interpretation of the Pillay reference. Pillay discloses a system and method the trade credit insurance of a customer or trading counterpart. (par. 2) The system and method is for the underwriting, generation, delivery and claims processing of or for trade credit insurance policies. (par. 28,48) Pillay further discloses the process by which claims submission and payment to the insured takes place. (par. 100, 112, Figures 6A-B)

The current claim language states that payment results from a misidentified or misrepresented identity of a trading counterparty. It is respectfully submitted that party/entity has misrepresented/misidentified itself and its resources (or has been misrepresented/misidentified) when it receives services or goods with an obligation to pay for said goods and services (i.e. the extension of credit), then fails to do so. Applicant's current claim language does not preclude this situation.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
